The symposium organisation team is looking for Youngs to chair workshops, organise and manage the Young Raffle at the Gala Dinner!

Reach out to Sheerah Kim, Communication Officer BPW Europe
sheerah.kim@bpw-europe.org

Workshop Chair

- Put your presentation skills into practice and chair one of the workshop slots in the Young Symposium agenda
- You can also do it in Tandem!

Young Raffle

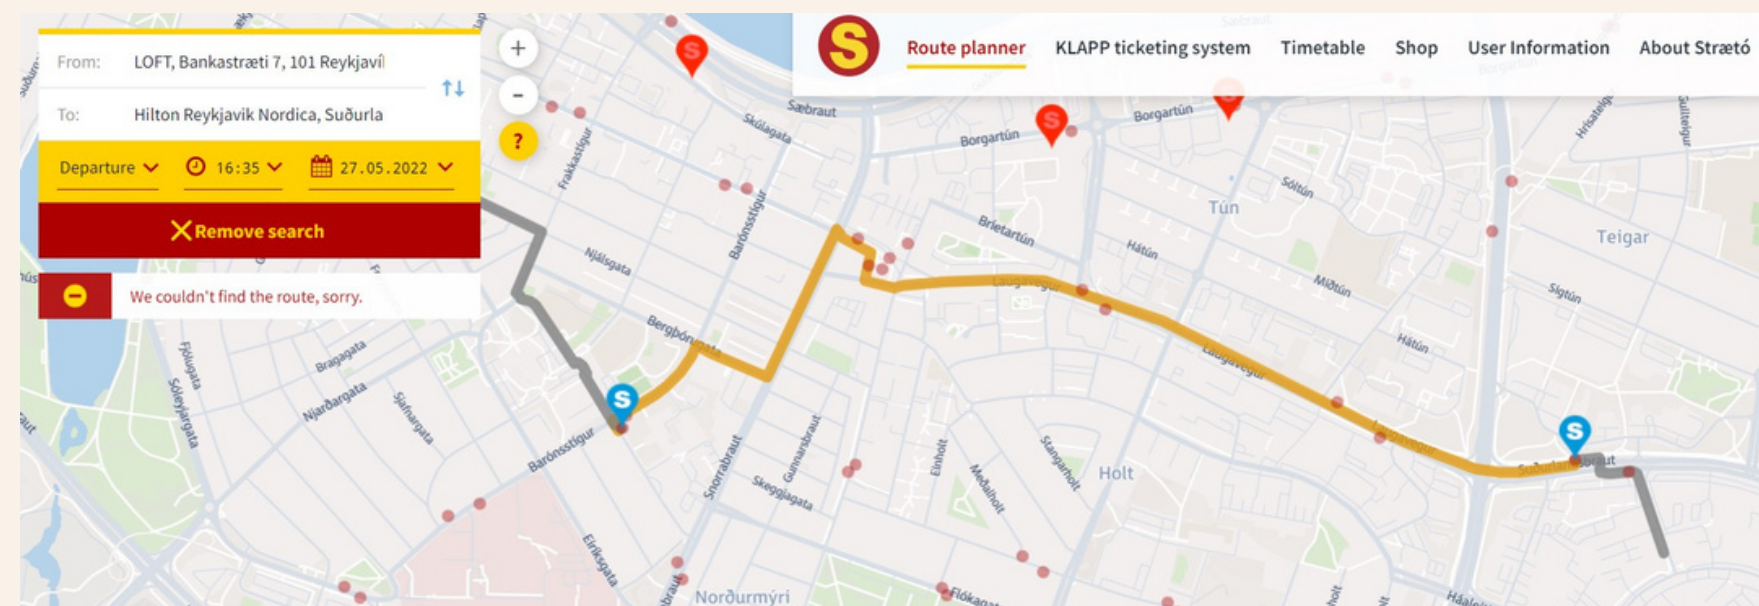

- Coordinate volunteers that sell tickets at the Gala Dinner
- Sponsorship management and organisation of Raffle Prizes
- Be the Master of Ceremony of the Young Raffle at the Gala Dinner together with Young Representative BPW Europe Alice Minuto

KEY POINTS YOUNG SYMPOSIUM

1) The main goal is to build an integrative programme and joint workshops and panels with the main European conference

2) The Young Symposium is conducted at the same venue as the 17th European conference at a highly discounted rate thanks to the Young BPW Fund, excluding bus transportation and other additional expenses indicated in the programme. Costs in Iceland are expensive. We have been lucky to organise a great Hostel for a very low price. We ask all BPW Clubs to consider sponsoring their Youngs to attend the Symposium, Gala Dinner and Farewell Party!

3) Main transportation for the Youngs will be by Bus. Strætó has an app which can be downloaded from Apple Store and Google Play. Users can connect their credit cards to the app and purchase tickets.

Where will the Youngs stay?

We have reserved an entire floor with ~40 beds in the HI Loft Hostel in a prime location in Reykjavik city center.

Key information:

- Open all year, 24/7 service
- Check in is after 14:00
- Reception opening hours: 08:00-24:00
- Night security: 24:00 to 08:00
- Breakfast is included in the price

Due to an incredible vaccination rollout and months of stringent measures, national restrictions have now been lifted. Reykjavik hosts various clubs, bars, craft bars, more traditional settings, local tastes, and an atmosphere to suit every preference.
